

Jesus 'Everything Skit' Draws Millions

Written by Administrator
Monday, 03 December 2007 05:03

---

Forget the billions of dollars spent on producing Hollywood films and all-star lineups.

Multi-tiered movie theaters and box office ads weren't needed to promote and draw more than 6 million views of a five-minute skit on GodTube and YouTube. It's the second-most viewed video on GodTube, having nearly seven times more looks than its third-place competitor.

The "Lifehouse Everything Skit," performed by Mission Baltimore with music by Lifehouse, has deeply moved the hearts and souls of America, and the only "hook" pulling people toward it is a yearning to draw closer to a forgiving and embracing Saviour.

Gripping the Heart of America

Many are calling the "Lifehouse Everything Skit" a phenomena, but it is so much more than that, as more and more continue to fall in love with Jesus or revive their relationship with Him after watching it.

The skit was originally performed at the 2006 Smoky Mountain Winterfest in Knoxville, Tenn. It packed 30,000 into the Tennessee Volunteers' Thompson-Boling arena each night, and has deeply impacted God's Kingdom ever since. Full article: <http://www.cbn.com/CBNnews/268780.aspx>

Cephas says: 'I've watched the video and it is powerful in it's simplistic message. I was so touched by it that I emailed it to the whole of my church. If you have 10 minutes to spare then watch it and be encouraged.'

Watch it here: http://www.godtube.com/view\_video.php?viewkey=ee73e63418003b47d7d5

It's best viewed in the morning, i.e. before America wake up!