Helen's mum is planning to fly out to Johannesburg today. Echoes of Service are paying for the flights, and there will be Christians waiting at Johannesburg airport for Enid to look after her. Two elderly ladies came to visit Helen on Saturday. The hospital have also been on the phone to Enid saying that Helen is doing well, and will undergo a further operation on Monday God willing. Thank you for your prayers.