My missionary friend Helen was flown to Milpark hospital in Johannesburg yesterday. She underwent an operation to her aorta today, which had been damaged in the car accident. The doctors put a stint in. As far as I know, no operation has yet been carried out on her pelvis. Her mum is planning to travel to Johannesburg on Wednesday to see Helen. My mum has relations in Johannesburg which may be able to visit her, if the hospital is near where they live. Please continue to pray for Helen. Thanks.

James 5:16
Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much
