I apologize for the website being down today. It seems that either the database running the website crashed or else we came under some sort of cyber attack. Thankfully the web host has got the site up and running again, which is an answer to prayer. This definately seems to be a time for the trial of one's faith... Computer's going down in work, satanic dreams and now problems with the website.

1st Peter 1:6-7
Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ
