Johns Hopkins doctor thinks COVID will be largely gone by April, half of U.S. has herd immunity