"The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows His handiwork." - Psalm 19 V1

"For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse, because although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Professing to be wise, they became fools..." - Romans 1 V20-22

The heavens declare the glory of God and all His creation from the minutest creation to the mighty ones declare the handiwork of God. Can you imagine how something could evolve over time with intelligence to make itself superior? People who believe that man evolved from a bacteria really believe in something that is impossible and deep down in their heart they know it. When I see a minute bug doing something unique, I believe it has to be the Creator who created it and gave that unique ability to it. Glorify God in everything for He is awesome and heaven and earth declare His awesomeness. Praise the Lord God Almighty!

Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!
