

"Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Tell Me, if you have understanding."
- Job 38:4

"But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? Will the things formed say to him who formed it, "Why have you made me like this?" Does not the potter have power over the clay ..." -
Romans 9:20-21

At the end of Job's long argument with his friends, God questions Job with several questions that leaves Job spell bound. Job suffered to bring God glory, God let Satan test Job but at the end Job emerged faithful. Many things in our own lives we do not understand why things happen and why there is suffering and tribulations. But if you are a believer in Christ, we know our suffering is not in vain but for the glory of God when we live in His will. Praise the Lord!
