"One thing I have desired of the Lord, that will I seek: That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in His temple." - Psalm 27:4 "In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne high and lifted up, and the train of His robe filled the temple." - Isaiah 6:1 The beauty of the Lord is amazing. His glory is awesome and we do not have any words to describe His majestic appearance. Yet our Lord laid aside His glory to come and seek us, His lost sheep. He reconciled us to the Father and by His own blood He bought us so we can dwell with Him in His presence. No joy compares to the joy in the presence of our Lord. He is high and lifted up at the right hand of the Father waiting for all His enemies to be made His footstool. Praise the Lord!
