

I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting

Written by Jacob Chacko Kallara
Friday, 17 June 2022 02:40

"...I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. It is hard for you to kick against the goads." - Acts 9:5

"I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me." - Galatians 2:20

Saul became Apostle Paul, the greatest among the apostles to be mightily used by God in advancing the Gospel to the world. Apostle Paul had a very dramatic conversion by seeing the risen Saviour on the way to Damascus to persecute Christians. After his conversion, He lived every bit of his life for Christ and for the cause of the Gospel. In Gal. 2:20 we read Apostle Paul's testimony: "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me". What a wonderful testimony! The very man who persecuted Christians lived his life for Christ. He believed in Jesus and lived his life by faith in the Son of God. What happened to Apostle Paul is the same conversion every believer in Christ goes through by believing in the the Son of God. Have you made that decision yet? Praise the Lord!