

"...Fear God and keep His commandments, for this is man's all." - Ecclesiastes 12:13 " 'But let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the Lord, exercising lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth. For in these I delight,' says the Lord." - Jeremiah 9:24 King Solomon was wisest among men. He was abundantly blessed by God in all aspects that a human being could desire. And yet, toward the end of his age, Solomon concluded that physical blessings by itself is all vanity. Man was created to fear God and keep His commandments. Man's real blessing comes from glorifying God his creator. Let not the rich glory in his richness nor the wise in his wisdom. But man's all is to know his creator and draw near to Him. When we draw near to God, He draws near to us. Praise the Lord!
