"Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful; But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law he meditates day and night." - Psalm 1:1,2 "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" - Psalm 27:1 At the beginning of the new year many people make new year's resolutions. Most if not all of these resolutions do not live long. But the Bible in the book of Psalms as the book open teaches us to delight in the law of the Lord. This is one resolution for someone new to the word of God will never fail. Even someone who has backslidden, it would be a great resolution to spend time daily in the word of God. The word of God provides wisdom and discernment to the man of God. It provides hope and strength in the time of trial. We can boldly then say, the Lord is my light and my salvation, whom shall I fear? We have the promise of God that He will never leave nor forsake us. Let us glorify His name in all that we do and delight in the law of the Lord day and night. Praise the Lord!
