

"Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who fear Him. On those who hope in His mercy, to deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine. Our soul waits for the Lord; He is our help and our shield. For our heart shall rejoice in Him, because we have trusted in His holy name. Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, just as we hope in You." - Psalm 33:18-22 "For the Son of Man has come to seek and save that which was lost." - Luke 19:10 The Lord is our redeemer and strength. He will not forsake a single lost sheep from His flock. He will bring everyone who fear and trust Him in the assembly of His saints and angels. Without the Lord, every soul is destined to be separated from God. Only Jesus Christ is our hope. Those who believe in Him are not condemned, but those who do not believe in Him are condemned already. The Lord waits for every sinner to repent and turn to Him. Those who seek Him will find mercy and truth. Let's remind ourselves that the Son of Man has come to seek and save that which was lost. Praise the Lord!
