

"The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows His handiwork. Day unto day utters speech, and night unto night reveals knowledge." - Psalm 19:1,2   "For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse." - Romans 1:20

The general revelation seen through the created world, which includes all things in this universe, declare the glory of God. Everything is wonderfully and beautifully made and placed. Every human being after seeing the created world know deep in heart that there is a Creator of all these things. God's invisible attributes are clearly seen by all things that are made. The natural response of man should be to worship the God who created all things. Sadly, that is not the response we see today, but man has turned away from God willing to worship the creatures than the Creator. Let us take a moment to reflect upon the wonderful work of God in our lives and give Him all the glory through Jesus Christ our Lord. Praise the Lord!
