"And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying, 'This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.' " - Matthew 3:17 "And the Father Himself, who sent Me, has testified of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His form." - John 5:37 Many to this day debate the person and authority of Jesus Christ. But what does the scripture has to say about the identity of Jesus? Our Lord is God in flesh. He is the only begotten of the Father who was with the Father before He came to earth. Our Father attested His Son with a voice that those who believed heard and saw the Spirit descending upon Him in the form of a dove, and voice from heaven saying, 'This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased'. John the Baptist witnessed this and he attested Jesus as the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. The works and miracles of Jesus testified of His authority, and also the scriptures themselves that spoke about the coming Messiah and King bore witness of Jesus. He is the King of kings and the Lord of lords, the Alpha and the Omega. Praise be the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, three in One. Praise the Lord!
