

"Then He said to His disciples, 'The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.' " - Matthew 9:37,38 "And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: 'How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!' " - Romans 10:15

Every believer in the Lord Jesus Christ is entrusted with a holy mission. Having received and believed the truth that Jesus Christ is Lord and Savior, that He died for our sins and rose again on the third day, and that through His sacrifice we have been granted the gift of salvation, we now bear an undeniable responsibility. This gift is offered freely to all who believe in Him. Yet how will a world lost in sin and darkness hear the good news unless those who have received it proclaim it? The will of God is advanced when His people faithfully declare the gospel and live as witnesses of His grace. Therefore, in all that we do, let us fulfill the mission God has commissioned us to carry out. May our lives, our words, and our actions testify to the saving power of Jesus Christ. Praise the Lord!
