"Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me; You will stretch out Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand will save me. The LORD will perfect that which concerns me; Your mercy, O LORD, endures forever; do not forsake the works of Your hands."
- Psalm 138:7, 8 "And He said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness.' Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." - 2 Corinthians 12:9 Sometimes we may feel we are all alone walking through the midst of trouble. King David walked through the valley of the shadow of death most of his entire life, and yet he trusted God all along the way. He penned down great psalms and prayers that he wrote during the time of his distress. God was with king David all the time, even when he did wrong, but repented. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ is all sufficient. It was all sufficient for the great Apostle Paul, and it is all sufficient for each one of us. Let's seek the power of Christ by trusting Him at all times. Praise the Lord!
