"...Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him." - 1 Corinthians 2:9 "For our citizenship is in heaven, from which we also eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body that it may be conformed to His glorious body, according to the working by which He is able even to subdue all things to Himself." - Philippians 3:20, 21
There are many thoughts and speculations about what heaven may look like. Yet Scripture gives us a glimpse that humbles every imagination. The Apostle Paul was caught up into the third heaven and heard things “that cannot be told, which man may not utter.” What he witnessed was so glorious, so holy, that human language could not contain it. Heaven is the dwelling place of God, filled with His radiant presence and all His holy angels. It is a place of perfect beauty, perfect righteousness, and perfect joy, far beyond anything our earthly minds can fully grasp. And this blessed hope belongs to all who know the Lord Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. One day, we will behold what Apostle Paul saw, not in vision, but in reality. For our citizenship is in heaven, and from there we eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform us and bring us into His everlasting kingdom. Praise the Lord!
