"Then He answered and spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, 'Take away the filthy garments from him.' And to him He said, 'See, I have removed your iniquity from you, and I will clothe you with rich robes.' " - Zechariah 3:4 "But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin." - 1 John 1:7 Joshua the High Priest, as described in the book of Zechariah, represents each of us as we stand before God in our natural condition, before being regenerated by the Holy Spirit. Joshua's filthy garments were removed, and he was clothed with rich, clean robes, while a clean turban was placed upon his head. This transformed state pictures all who have been cleansed by the blood of Jesus Christ and clothed in His perfect righteousness. Those who are covered with Christ's righteousness can confidently enter the presence of a holy God, not because of any merit of their own, but because they have been accepted in the Beloved. Having been redeemed and reconciled to God, they can now praise, worship, and serve Him in the presence of His glory. Trust in the Lord Jesus Christ, for He alone can provide the righteousness we need to stand before God and be accepted in His sight. Praise the Lord!
