South Asia monsoons expected to ease; death toll increases

Written by Monday, 06 August 2007 18:37

LUCKNOW, India — Floodwaters receded in parts of monsoon-soaked South Asia on Monday but the death toll rose to 347, officials said. Millions remain displaced and homeless, and authorities fear waterborne disease could spread.